1. Aims, scope and principles

This policy aims to set and maintain standards of conduct that we expect all governors to follow.

By creating this policy, we aim to ensure that governors carry out their role with honesty and integrity and help us to ensure our school is an environment where everyone is safe, happy and treated with respect.

The code is based on the academy trust governance guide and the Academy Trust Handbook. It should be read alongside our constitutional documents (e.g. our articles of association, standing orders and any scheme of delegation). Failure to follow the code of conduct may result in disciplinary action being taken, as set out in the appendix.

Please note that this code of conduct is not exhaustive. If situations arise that are not covered by this code, governors will use their judgement and act in the best interests of the trust and its pupils.

2. The 7 Nolan principles of public life

As members of the Local Advisory Board (LAB) we will follow these principles set out by the government at all times. They apply to anyone who holds a public office:

- Selflessness – we will act in the public interest
- Integrity – we will not act or take decisions to gain financial or other material benefits for ourselves, our family, or our friends. We will declare any conflict of interests
- Objectivity – we will act and take decisions impartially, fairly, and on merit. We will use the best evidence and avoid discrimination or bias
- Accountability – we understand that we are accountable to the public for our decisions and actions. To make sure of this, we will be scrutinised where necessary
- Openness – we will act and take decisions openly and transparently. We will not withhold information from the public unless there are clear and lawful reasons for doing so
- Honesty – we will be truthful
- Leadership – we will actively promote and support the above principles and will challenge poor behaviour wherever it happens

3. Governor responsibilities

Members of the Local Advisory Board are responsible for the link between the trust and the parents and the community, feeding into the trust's oversight and management of the school. The Trust board delegates to them the following functions:

Developing an understanding of how the trust and the school are led and managed by:

- Building an understanding of the trust's ambitions for the school and its pupils – its vision and strategy and how this is realised at school level
- Knowing the trust's values and becoming familiar with key policies, understanding how these work in practice so that they are creating a healthy culture for all

Being the link with parents and the community by:

- Building a knowledge of parents' views and the community context

Monitoring the work of the school, escalating any concerns to the CEO and / or trustees by:

- Scrutinising reports on the school's progress with achieving its ambitions
- Scrutinising reports on how the school complies with key policies
- Reviewing key decisions made by the headteacher e.g., pupil exclusions and responses to complaints

To do this effectively, as individuals we will:

- Understand and respect the distinction between the role and responsibilities of the Trust board and those of the Local Advisory Board
- Set and maintain an ethos of high expectations for everyone in the community of the school, including in the conduct and the professionalism of the LAB itself

- Promote equality and diversity throughout our organisation, including the LAB's operation

- Uphold fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect, and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs

Appendix 1: breaches of the code of conduct

If we suspect a governor has breached the code of conduct, we will follow this procedure:

- A Member of the trust will investigate
- A Member of the trust will hold a meeting with the governor to discuss the issue. The governor can bring a friend to the meeting. Another governor will attend to corroborate any decisions
- If the situation doesn't improve, or there is another suspected breach, we will take action to improve the issue. This may involve:
 - Further meetings with the governor to reset expectations, based on this code of conduct
 - Support, mentoring or training for the governor
 - Making sure the governor withdraws from votes connected to any disputes they have been involved in
- If there is no improvement in the governor's behaviour, the board will vote on a motion to ask the Members to remove them in accordance with sections 168 and 169 of the Companies Act 2006 and the trust's articles of association. This is a last resort and will not be used without the above steps being taken, except in exceptional circumstances

Governors may be suspended if they:

- Have acted in a way that is inconsistent with the professional ethos of the governors (including failing to undertake training appropriate to the role, whether or not directed to do so by the board) and

- Acted to undermine fundamental British values or the board's commitment or ability to deliver on its Prevent Duty

Governors may be removed where:

- There has been serious misconduct. We will determine what counts as serious misconduct based on the facts of the case, but it will include any actions that compromise the 7 principles of public life, if sufficiently serious
- They display repeated and serious incompetence
- Their actions are significantly detrimental to the effective operation of the board, or their actions interfere with the operational efficiency of the school
